

HEAD OF RECRUITMENT

Abu Dhabi Investment
Authority (ADIA)

ADIA is one of the world's premier institutional investment organisations, managing a substantial global portfolio. It is considered to be one of the most influential organisations in the global market.

Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates

ADIA is embarking upon a major change programme to strategically realign HR to the core businesses. The Head of Recruitment will play a crucial role in identifying, attracting, selecting and engaging the people and capabilities needed to achieve ADIA's goals.

The ideal candidate will be an expert in all areas of recruitment and retention. A background in financial services is a must, along with exceptional interpersonal skills. Previous experience of working in the Middle East is not a prerequisite but you will need to demonstrate a background of working in an international, cross-cultural environment.

Rewards include a competitive salary, discretionary bonus, and comprehensive expatriate benefits package, all of which are tax free. Abu Dhabi is a modern, safe and cosmopolitan city which offers first class entertainment and recreation facilities, year-round sunshine and an attractive quality of life.

To apply, please send your CV quoting your salary/package details in the strictest confidence to Jono Venter at mail@digby-morgan.com quoting reference 11005/JCVST.
